

This village house is located in a quiet street in the center of Gata de Gorgos. One enters a large space with a separate room on the right. If we walk further, the space expands to the right. Behind it we find a storage room, the kitchen and a staircase to the top. The stairs take us to the second floor, where there is a lounge, two bedrooms, a bathroom and a terrace. If we go back to the ground floor, we can enter an inner courtyard where we find a bathroom and an outdoor kitchen. At the other end of the courtyard there is another room. In addition, there is also a staircase that gives access to another room and a terrace. The property can be purchased as an investment and is in need of renovation.
